

When you find the secret letters, write them out in the spaces below to reveal the hidden phrase!

_____!

Complete an entry form with this phrase to go into the draw to win a LEGO® Lighthouse set!

SHIP
BRICKS

Explore our exhibitions to find the LEGO® figures hidden in the museum. Each figure is holding a secret letter. Write these 10 letters as you go and then on the back of the book to reveal the prize winning phrase!

ACTION STATIONS

Tugboats were used to push or pull bigger boats that couldn't move well on their own. Find the sailor on the June Lu.

More than 850 shipwrecks line South Australia's coast. Keep an eye out for the shipwreck survivor and underwater archaeologists hiding in the collection.

WRECKED

There weren't just sailors on board ships, but many animals too! Find Captain Sven Eriksson's dog Paik on the deck of the Herzogin Cecilie.

PAMELA & THE DUCHESS

WINDJAMMERS

Windjammers are ships that carried grain from South Australia to Europe in the early 1900s. Find the sailor near the model of the Kobenhavn.

FIRST VOYAGES

Nicolas Baudin and Matthew Flinders mapped our coast in 1802 with scientists and artists on board. Find the artist, Captain Flinders and his cat, Trim.

Nine ships came to SA in 1836 carrying settlers from Europe. It wasn't just people they were carrying – find the rat eating the biscuit in the basement!

BOUND FOR SA

The beach is a summer staple for most Australians and has been for decades. Find the surfer chick hiding in Life's a Beach.

LIFE'S A BEACH

LIVING IN PORT

There were many different maritime occupations in the Port. Can you spot our wharf workers and our Quarantine Station doctor?

TAPESTRY OF TREASURES

The Port Adelaide Nautical Museum opened in 1872 and is the oldest maritime collection in Australia. Find curator Vernon Smith on board Aboriginal.

Swimming in the Port was a popular event. Keep an eye out for Betty next to her swimming trophy.

LIVING IN PORT

